

RELEASE IN PART
B6

From: Slaughter, Anne-Marie <SlaughterA@state.gov>
Sent: Friday, January 1, 2010 3:51 PM
To: H
Subject: Re: Oh, my--and , thankfully, Happy New year!

B6

Thank you for such a lovely note. [redacted] Life seems very sweet indeed this New Year's Day, and all the more so with the privilege of doing meaningful and important work with a great team of people and a leader whom I am proud to serve. It has been quite a journey indeed, one that has been hard at times, but immensely rewarding. Happy New Year, and here's to a great 2010.
AM

----- Original Message -----
From: H <HDR22@clintonemail.com>
To: Slaughter, Anne-Marie
Sent: Fri Jan 01 12:00:58 2010
Subject: Oh, my--and , thankfully, Happy New year!

Dear Anne-Marie,

I was just reading your two wonderful memos on S/ P accomplishments and the QDDR, [redacted]
[redacted]

I also want to thank you for a wonderful year of work, creativity, collaboration and progress. I know the start for all of us was shaky, but we have hit our stride and you are such a valuable member of the team, a generator of ideas, a conductor of talent and even a necessary nudge from time to time. Thank you for making this journey w me.

I will schedule the S/P visit and photo as soon as I can. Until we see one another next week, be well and take care (please!)

All the best, Hillary